

Smart mobility in Tallinn

Jaagup Ainsalu

City of Tallinn

Transport Department

Head of the Smart Mobility

Facts & Figures

- Capital of Estonia, located in the North Eastern part of Europe
- City rights since 1248
- Area 159.1 square kms
- Waterfront 46.2 kms
- 3 rivers, 2 lakes, 1 island

- The only capital in Europe, where international airport, international harbour and international railway station are within 5 km radius
- Hyperloop 1 has chosen Tallinn-Helsinki connection as one of their perspective routes
- Rail Baltic – the new international railway to Europe will start from Tallinn
- Tallinn and Helsinki are planning an undersea railway tunnel connecting two capitals
- Ongoing self-driving bus test

Smart Mobility

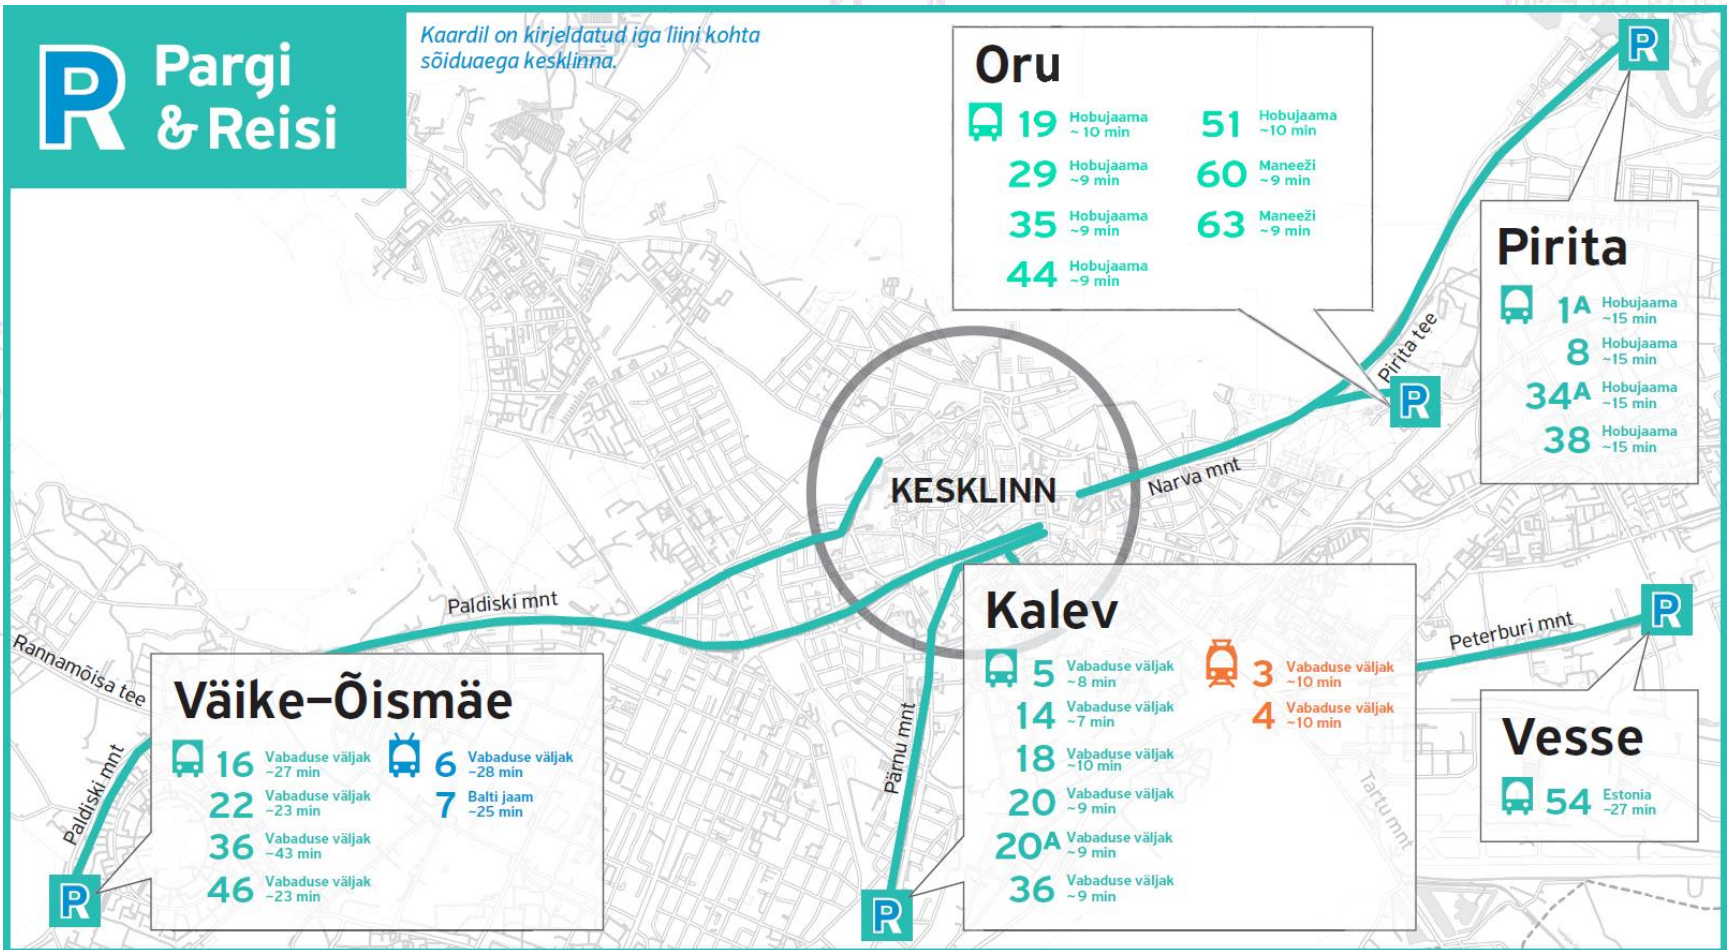

Priority lanes

P&R system

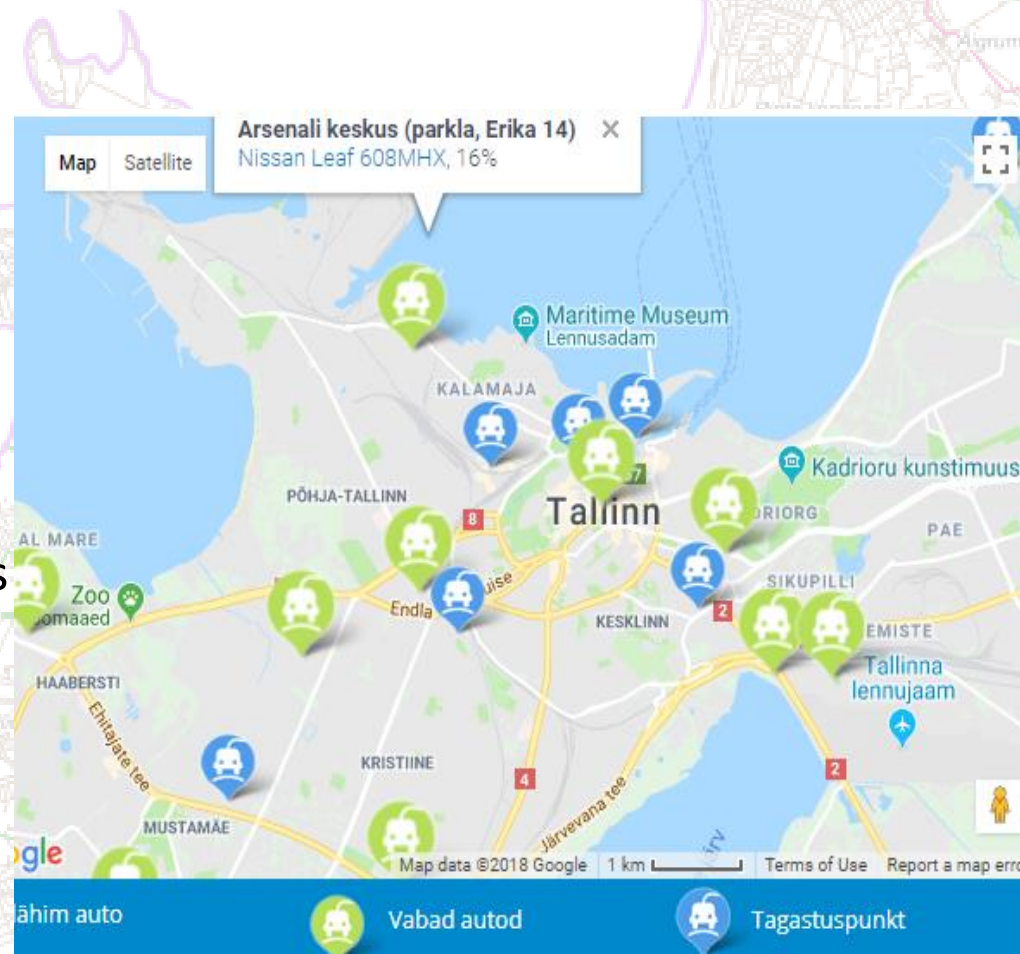

R Pargi & Reisi

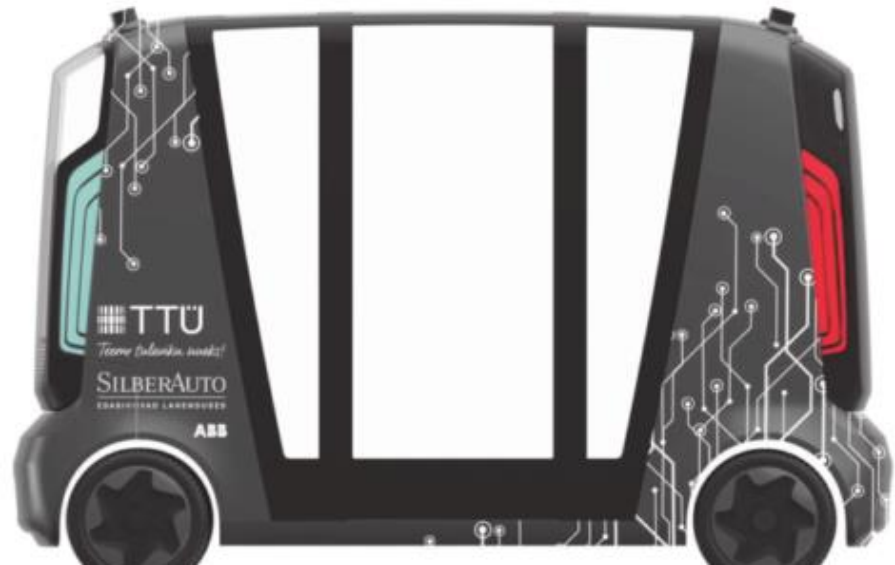

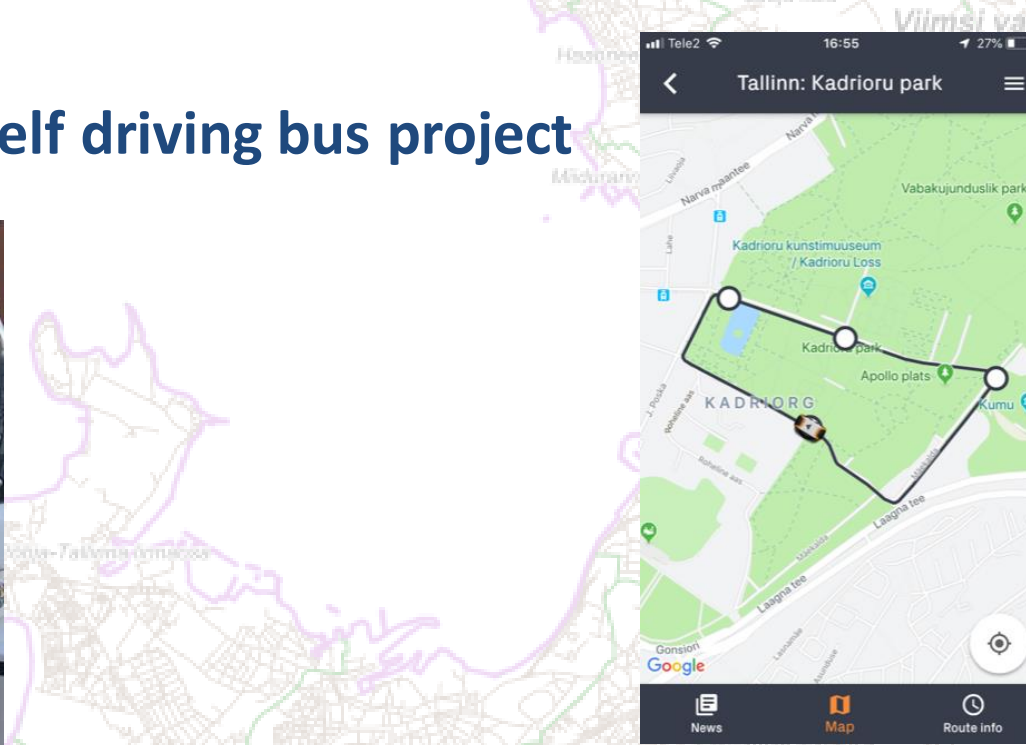

Kaardil on kirjeldatud iga liini kohta sõiduaega kesklinna.

Electric cars short term rent

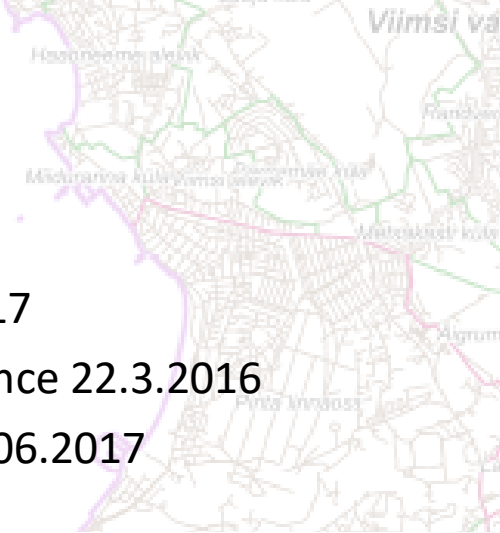

- Key free, you just need a cell phone to rent
- 31 environmentally friendly electric and hybrid vehicles (Nissan Leaf and Mitsubishi i-Mievs)
- Rental points in Tallinn and Tartu
- The use of public transport tracks helps to avoid congestion
- Costs 4 €-6€ per/ Hour

- Parcel delivery robots legally on streets since 14.06.2017
- Self-driving cars/buses are legally allowed on streets since 22.3.2016
- Ride-sharing is legalised and properly taxed since 14.06.2017

Mobile Tallinn

LILLED JA KINGITUSED

Tallinn

AI for the smart mobility in Tallinn

SMART PARKING

THANK YOU!
JAAGUP AINSALU
TALLINN TRANSPORT DEPARTMENT
HEAD OF THE SMART MOBILITY
JAAGUP.AINSALU@TALLINNLV.EE